

Participating Universities

ALFRED UNIVERSITY

Alfred, New York 14802

E-mail: admissions@alfred.edu; Web site: www.alfred.edu

Emily Mishalanie, Admissions Counselor

Founded in 1836, Alfred University is the second oldest co-educational institution in the U.S. We are a private university with 2,000 undergraduates and 350 graduate students. International students represent more than 22 different countries. AU is located in rural western New York and is a friendly, residential campus with over 60 academic programs. We offer degrees in engineering, business, art and liberal arts & sciences ranging from the Bachelor's to Ph.D. levels. U.S. News & World Report (2005) ranks AU among the top 15 Master's institutions in the north.

AMERICAN UNIVERSITY

Washington, District of Columbia 20016

E-mail: admissions@american.edu; Web site: www.american.edu

Marquita Lightfoot, Associate Director of Admissions

American University (AU) was founded in 1893. Over 11,000 students from throughout the U.S. and over 130 countries are enrolled on the 84-acre campus. AU offers undergraduate and graduate degree programs through its six major divisions: College of Arts and Sciences; Kogod School of Business; School of Communications; School of Public Affairs; School of International Service; and Washington College of Law. AU is located in a residential neighborhood of northwest Washington, D.C. and is a short distance from Washington's centers of government, business, research, commerce and art.

AMERICAN UNIVERSITY, SCHOOL OF INTERNATIONAL SERVICE

Washington, District of Columbia 20016

E-mail: sisgrad@american.edu; Web site: www.american.edu/sis/

Sonja Steinbrech, Assistant Director, Graduate Admissions and Marketing

The School of International Service (SIS) is the largest school of international affairs in the U.S. and is a founding member of the Association of Professional Schools of International Affairs. Graduate degrees at SIS include Comparative and Regional Studies, International Communication, Global Environmental Policy, International Development, International Economic Relations, International Peace and Conflict Resolution, International Politics and U.S. Foreign Policy.

BINGHAMTON UNIVERSITY, THE STATE UNIVERSITY OF NEW YORK

Binghamton, New York 13902

E-mail: admit@binghamton.edu; Web site: www.binghamton.edu

Jenae Schmidt, Senior Assistant Director of Admissions

Binghamton University is consistently ranked by U.S. News & World Report as one of the best public universities in America, distinguished by outstanding academics and research, a strong commitment to internationalization and a vibrant campus culture. They offer over 100 academic options, ranging from Liberal Arts and Science, Business, Engineering and Computer Science to Nursing and Human Development. Located in beautiful upstate New York, the growing campus is home to high-tech facilities, spacious residence halls and a world-class arts complex.

BRYANT UNIVERSITY

Smithfield, Rhode Island 02917

E-mail: international@bryant.edu; Web site: www.bryant.edu

John Eriksen, Associate Director, International Admission

Bryant University, located in suburban Rhode Island, just 15 minutes away from Providence, has been a leader and innovator in preparing its graduates for professional careers in the Global World since 1863. Bryant blends a contemporary business education with traditional liberal arts studies. Bryant is AACSB accredited and is listed in Barron's 300 Best Buys in College Education. Bryant is committed to preparing students to be accomplished professionals with multiple career options throughout the world.

BUTLER UNIVERSITY

Indianapolis, Indiana 46112

E-mail: intadmission@butler.edu; Web site: www.butler.edu

Amy Bennett, Assistant Coordinator of International Admission

Butler University, founded in 1855, has an enrollment of nearly 4,400 students from 63 countries and nearly every state in the U.S. Located in Indianapolis, Indiana, Butler emphasizes the warmth, community and personal attention of a liberal arts and sciences-based institution while offering the quality educational and cultural advantages of an urban university. Butler features over 60 academic majors in Business, Arts & Sciences, Education, Pharmacy and Performing Arts and boasts a 97% placement rate of graduates into careers and graduate schools.

CALIFORNIA LUTHERAN UNIVERSITY

Thousand Oaks, California 91360

E-mail: cluadm@callutheran.edu; Web site: www.callutheran.edu

Dane Rowley, Assistant Director of Admission & Coordinator of International Admission

CLU is a private, residential university of the liberal arts, sciences and professional studies affiliated with the ELCA. For the eighth straight year, California Lutheran University has been placed in the top tier of Western Regional Colleges and Universities in the U.S. News & World Report annual rankings. CLU offers 36 undergraduate majors and 28 minors as well as pre-professional programs in law, medicine, engineering and church vocations on a semester calendar year.

CALIFORNIA STATE UNIVERSITY, CHICO

Chico, California 95929

E-mail: grin@csuchico.edu; Web site: www.csuchico.edu

Debra Cooperider, Coordinator, International Admissions

California State University, Chico is a fully accredited, public institution located in scenic northern California. CSU, Chico, founded in 1877, is noted for a distinguished faculty, which has brought recognition to the university by its excellence in teaching, research and creative accomplishments. The student enrollment of 16,000 includes 500 international students from 60 countries, attracted by the excellent programs and the convenience of living in a small, affordable city. The August 2004 U.S. News and World Report rates Chico State in the Top 3 of public comprehensive universities in the western U.S.

CALVIN COLLEGE

Grand Rapids, Michigan 49546

E-mail: intladm@calvin.edu; Web site: www.calvin.edu/international

Rosemary Mason Etter, Assistant Director, International Admissions

Calvin College, an outstanding four-year liberal arts college in Grand Rapids, Michigan, is recognized worldwide for its distinctive blend of Christian worldview and open academic inquiry. With over 4,200 students who come from near and far, Calvin is one of the largest and most respected Christian colleges in North America. Offering over 90 areas of study and a robust honors program, the Calvin curriculum spans a wide range of the liberal arts as well as several professional programs.

CLARKSON UNIVERSITY

Potsdam, New York 13699

E-mail: intladm@clarkson.edu; Web site: www.clarkson.edu

Patricia Perrier, Assistant Director, Undergraduate Admission

Clarkson University is a private, nationally recognized research university with 3,000 students. We are the institution of choice for scholars from diverse backgrounds who thrive in a rigorous, collaborative learning environment. Our programs prepare students to meet the changing demands of the global economy in arts and science, business and engineering. We are located in New York's North Country, in the foothills of the Adirondack Mountains. Our community of learning is comprised of undergraduate and graduate students from across the country and around the world.

COLBY-SAWYER COLLEGE

New London, New Hampshire 03257
E-mail: admissions@colby-sawyer.edu; Web site: www.colby-sawyer.edu
Kara Laing, Admissions Counselor and Coordinator of International Recruitment

Colby-Sawyer College is one of the leading small, private, liberal arts colleges in the northeast U.S. With a student body of 964, an average class size of 18, and a student-to-faculty ratio of 11:1, individual attention and student development are the cornerstones of a Colby-Sawyer education.

EASTERN CONNECTICUT STATE UNIVERSITY

Willimantic, Connecticut 06226
E-mail: admissions@easternct.edu; Web site: www.easternct.edu
Kimberly Crone, Director of Admissions and Enrollment Management

Eastern Connecticut State is a multi-purpose institution with expanding programs in the liberal arts and professional areas. The University's concern for the individual and its small classes, personalized counseling and independent study opportunities encourage intellectual and personal growth and development. The student body is made up of students from around the U.S. and numerous foreign countries.

EMBRY-RIDDLE AERONAUTICAL UNIVERSITY

Daytona Beach, Florida 32114 & Prescott, Arizona 86301
E-mail: international.admissions@erau.edu;
Web site: www.embry-riddle.edu/international
Thomas Shea, Director of International and Graduate Admissions

Embry-Riddle Aeronautical University, with residential campuses in Prescott, Arizona and Daytona Beach, Florida, is the world's largest, fully accredited university specializing in aviation and aerospace. Embry-Riddle offers more than 35 undergraduate and graduate degree programs in the areas of Arts and Science, Aviation, Business, Security, Meteorology, Space Physics and Engineering. U.S. News & World Report's 2005 "Best Colleges" guide has again named Embry-Riddle No. 1 in the Aerospace/Aeronautical/Astronautical Engineering category.

EMERSON COLLEGE

Boston, Massachusetts 02116
E-mail: international@emerson.edu; Web site: www.emerson.edu/admission
Mardi Klein, Assistant Director of International Admission

Emerson College is one of the premier colleges in the U.S. for studying communication and performing arts. Located in Boston's Theater District, the college has over 30 undergraduate and graduate programs supported by state-of-the-art facilities and a world-renowned faculty. Opportunities also exist for study in Europe and Los Angeles.

FAIRLEIGH DICKINSON UNIVERSITY

Teaneck, New Jersey 07666
E-mail: global@fdu.edu (NJ campuses); vancouver@fdu.edu (FDU-Vancouver);
Web site: www.fdu.edu
Heather Augar, Director of International Admissions

Fairleigh Dickinson University is a private institution with campuses in the metropolitan New York City area; central New Jersey; Vancouver, Canada and Wroxton, England. As a leader in international education, the University's mission is to educate "global citizens." FDU offers over 100 academic programs to students from over 70 countries. International scholarship and paid internship programs are available. Open Doors lists FDU among the most popular universities for international students pursuing a Master's degree.

FOOTHILL AND DEANZA COLLEGES

Los Altos Hills, California 94022
E-mail: fhinternational@fhda.edu; Web site: www.fhda.edu
Darlene F. Culbertson, Director, International Education

Foothill and DeAnza Colleges are located in Silicon Valley, California, just 45 minutes south of San Francisco. They are both two-year institutions offering the first two years of 75 university majors and have strong transfer rates to excellent four-year universities. The Colleges offer small classes, excellent teachers and individual attention. Multi-lingual counselors and staff at the International Student Office are very knowledgeable in working with international students.

THE GEORGE WASHINGTON UNIVERSITY

Washington, District of Columbia 20052
E-mail: gwadm@gwu.edu; Web site: www.gwu.edu
Katelyn Rosa, Senior Assistant Director of Admissions

The George Washington University is a private, coeducational, comprehensive institution located in the heart of Washington, DC. Undergraduate and graduate programs are offered in arts, sciences, business administration, engineering, medicine and health sciences, education and international affairs. A limited number of scholarships are available to international students.

GRAND VALLEY STATE UNIVERSITY

Allendale, Michigan 49401
E-mail: global@gvsu.edu; Web site: admissions.gvsu.edu
Jim Crawley, Associate Director for International Recruitment

Grand Valley State University is a public university offering 70 undergraduate major programs and 25 graduate degree programs. Located near Grand Rapids, Michigan, GVSU offers new facilities, beautiful campuses and academic programs that emphasize research and interaction with faculty. GVSU offers wireless technology in its academic buildings and Internet connectivity in all of its residence facilities. An ELS Language Center is available for intensive or semi-intensive study.

INDIANA UNIVERSITY - BLOOMINGTON

Bloomington, Indiana 47405
E-mail: intladm@indiana.edu; Web site: www.admit.indiana.edu
Candice L. Proglor, Assistant Director for International Recruitment

Indiana University-Bloomington is the flagship campus of the Indiana University system. IUB's campus is located in the rolling hills of southern Indiana, which is in the heart of the U.S. IUB is one of America's great teaching and research universities. Along with outstanding academic preparation, students can work for Fortune 500 companies, see world-class operas and theatre performances, participate in cutting-edge research, listen to world leaders and become friends with other outstanding students. Our priority is providing an amazing university experience.

IOWA STATE UNIVERSITY OF SCIENCE AND TECHNOLOGY

Ames, Iowa 50011
E-mail: admissions@iastate.edu; Web site: www.iastate.edu
Ann Gogerty, Global Recruitment Coordinator

Iowa State University of Science and Technology, established in 1858, is a comprehensive Carnegie Foundation Research I University offering Bachelor's, Master's and Doctorate degrees. The birthplace of the 1st computer, Iowa State ranks in the top 20 in wireless computer access. Iowa State is also ranked in the top three in new patentable biotechnology, the top 10% in engineering undergraduate programs, third for engineering specialty programs and is one of the top 50 public universities in the U.S. Of ISU's 26,000 students, over 2,300 are international students from all over the world.

ITHACA COLLEGE

Ithaca, New York 14850
E-mail: admission@ithaca.edu; Web site: www.ithaca.edu
Nicole Eversley Bradwell, Associate Director of Admission

Ithaca College, a private, comprehensive, residential college of 6,200 students, has a 12:1 student-faculty ratio and offers over 100 majors in five distinct schools and a Division of Interdisciplinary and International Programs: Business, Communications, Health Sciences and Human Performance, Humanities and Sciences and Music. Ithaca's modern campus provides a vibrant setting for living and learning in a cosmopolitan college town.

LAWRENCE TECHNOLOGICAL UNIVERSITY

Southfield, Michigan 48075

E-mail: admissions@ltu.edu; Web site: www.ltu.edu

Adam Berry, Admissions Counselor

Lawrence Technological University is a private university focused on providing superior education through cutting-edge technology, small class sizes and innovative programs. LTU offers over 50 academic programs through its Colleges of Architecture and Design, Arts and Sciences, Engineering and Management. Nearly 5,000 students are enrolled in undergraduate, Master's and Doctoral programs. LTU's 120-acre campus offers a complete range of academic, residential and recreational facilities and a wireless laptop campus.

MENLO COLLEGE

Atherton, California 94027

E-mail: admissions@menlo.edu; Web site: www.menlo.edu

Oriole Huang, Assistant Director

Menlo College is a premier small college of Business Management, Mass Communication/Journalism and Liberal Arts. Our 780 students are prepared for leadership through classes averaging 15 in size, world-class internships, an unrivaled alumni network and an outstanding array of athletic, social and cultural opportunities. Merit scholarships up to $12,000 per year are available for outstanding international and domestic students. Every year, 10 international students are awarded scholarships of up to $17,000.

MIAMI UNIVERSITY

Oxford, Ohio 45056

E-mail: admission@muohio.edu; Web site: www.muohio.edu

Aaron Bixler, Associate Director, International Recruitment

Located 58 kilometers northwest of Cincinnati, Miami University is a state-assisted institution that was founded in 1809, making it one of the oldest universities in the U.S. Miami has a national reputation as a premier public university. Students receive the benefits of a major university: over 100 fields of study, opportunities for scholarships and lots of student activities, along with the personal attention and academic reputation typically found only at private schools. Miami is accredited by the North Central Association of Colleges and Schools in the United States.

MOUNT IDA COLLEGE

Newton Center, Massachusetts 02459

E-mail: admissions@mountida.edu; Web site: www.mountida.edu

Nancy Lemelman, Director of Admissions

Founded in 1899 and located 13 kilometers from Boston, Mount Ida College is a private, coeducational institution accredited by the New England Association of Schools and Colleges (NEASC). With around 1,300 students from 30 states and 40 countries, Mount Ida offers baccalaureate degrees in more than 25 areas of study and a few options at the Associate degree level. An ESL Plus program is available to students scoring between 425-525 on the TOEFL. Merit and achievement scholarships are awarded to international students and internships and study abroad opportunities are available.

THE OHIO STATE UNIVERSITY

Columbus, Ohio 43210

E-mail: int.undergrad@osu.edu; Web site: www.osu.edu

Michael O. Rice, International Admissions Counselor

The Ohio State University, established in 1870, is among the top 25 national public universities. Ohio State offers top-notch programs in over 170 major programs and 450 academic specializations; more than 700 student organizations; a genuine commitment to diversity; and the challenges and opportunities only found at a world-class research university.

OREGON STATE UNIVERSITY

Corvallis, Oregon 97331

E-mail: osuadmit@oregonstate.edu; Web site: <http://oregonstate.edu>

Julie Walkin, Assistant Director of International Admissions

Oregon State University (OSU) offers Bachelor's, Master's, Doctoral and professional degrees in 200 major areas of study. In an active research and learning environment, students prepare for careers in business, engineering and computer science, the physical and life sciences, and arts and humanities. The academic strengths of the university, warm and friendly atmosphere of the town and natural beauty of Oregon create an inviting place for serious studies, scenic explorations and personal growth.

PORTLAND STATE UNIVERSITY

Portland, Oregon 97207

E-mail: internationaladm@pdx.edu; Web site: www.pdx.edu

Paula Harris, Associate Director for International Admissions

Discover Portland State University, Oregon's largest comprehensive university. On the scenic west coast, Portland State offers the opportunity to live and learn in the heart of one of America's most livable cities. PSU provides a breadth of academic programs and cultural opportunities. Its 24,000 students represent 97 countries around the world.

RADFORD UNIVERSITY

Radford, Virginia 24142

E-mail: ruadmiss@radford.edu; Web site: www.radford.edu

Amy Jarich, Associate Director of Admissions

Radford University was founded in 1910 and is a comprehensive, residential university committed to individualized instruction in medium-sized classes offering high academic standards and excellence in teaching. Degree options include 106 undergraduate and more than 30 graduate programs. The student enrollment at Radford is approximately 9,242, and the University is home to students from 45 states and 47 countries.

RANDOLPH-MACON WOMAN'S COLLEGE

Lynchburg, Virginia 24503

E-mail: admissions@rmwc.edu; Web site: www.rmwc.edu

Joy McGrath, Associate Director of Admissions for International Students

R-MWC is a private, four-year liberal arts college located in the foothills of the Blue Ridge Mountains of Virginia. R-MWC offers strong academics with 28 major programs and emphases. The most popular majors are psychology, biology, global studies and economics. The student body of 760 students represents 43 states and 46 countries and includes extensive ethnic, racial and cultural diversity. All international students are eligible for merit scholarships when they apply to the College. All undergraduate students at R-MWC live on campus in one of six residence halls.

RIDER UNIVERSITY

Lawrenceville, New Jersey 08648

E-mail: admissions@rider.edu; Web site: www.rider.edu

Aimee L. Thomson, Assistant Director of Undergraduate Admission

Founded in 1865, Rider University is an independent, coeducational, nonsectarian institution accredited by the Middle States Association. Rider has two campuses, one in Lawrenceville, New Jersey and one in Princeton, New Jersey. Rider's four academic units include the College of Business Administration; the College of Liberal Arts, Education and Sciences; the College of Continuing Studies; and Westminster Choir College, located in Princeton, New Jersey. Over 60 programs are available at the undergraduate level; 17 programs are available at the graduate level.

SAINT LOUIS UNIVERSITY

St. Louis, Missouri 63103

E-mail: ndame@slu.edu; Web site: www.slu.edu/centers/international
Nikki Dame, International Admission Counselor, International Center

Not only will you receive a rigorous education at Saint Louis University, you will also develop character and a strong moral conscience to help you become a great leader with solid values, empowered to make positive contributions to society. SLU provides a full range of support services to the international community, including immigration advisement, cultural events, an orientation program, airport pickup and the student ambassador program. The university has a top-ranked medical school/law school/business school, 80+ undergraduate and graduate programs and an ESL program.

SAN FRANCISCO STATE UNIVERSITY

San Francisco, California 94132

E-mail: world@sfsu.edu; Web site: www.sfsu.edu
Ko Aoshima, International Student Advisor

San Francisco State University (SFSU), part of the California State University system, was established in 1899. SFSU has eight different colleges that award Bachelor's and Master's degrees in over 200 majors and three Ph.D.'s jointly with UC Berkeley and UCSF. SFSU is ranked No. 1 by IIE in enrollment of international students for Master's institutions. SFSU is located in a safe, quiet neighborhood in one of the world's most international and exciting cities.

SEATTLE UNIVERSITY

Seattle, Washington 98122

E-mail: admissions@seattleu.edu; Web site: www.seattleu.edu
Merida E. Escandon, Assistant Director of Admissions

Seattle University is an independent, four-year, comprehensive university founded by the Jesuits in 1891. The university offers professionally accredited programs in 56 undergraduate and 24 graduate areas, including business, science and engineering, nursing, education, law and the arts and sciences. Enrollment is approximately 6,900 students from 47 states and 72 nations.

ST. CLOUD STATE UNIVERSITY

St. Cloud, Minnesota 56301

E-mail: asia4SCSU@stcloudstate.edu; Web site: www.stcloudstate.edu
Nichole Hanson, Director of International Admissions

St. Cloud State University is home to over 900 international students from over 80 countries. With 16,000 total students, SCSU has nationally and internationally accredited degree programs with nationally and internationally recognized faculty in undergraduate and graduate programs. SCSU welcomes international students by offering an in-state tuition scholarship for all international students called the Academic and Cultural Sharing Scholarship. The university is located on the Mississippi River in the upper midwestern portion of the U.S. It is a safe, friendly community to live in.

ST. JOHN'S UNIVERSITY

Queens, New York 11439

E-mail: intladm@stjohns.edu; Web site: www.stjohns.edu
Sungee Li Lam, Director, Multicultural & International Admission

St. John's University offers international students world-class programs and high-tech facilities on five campuses: our 100-acre residential campus in Queens, New York City; a compact campus in Staten Island, a borough of the city; a prize-winning campus in Manhattan's financial district; a 175-acre campus in Oakdale, N.Y.; and a graduate center in Rome, Italy. Nearly 1,000 international students from 100 foreign countries are enrolled in St. John's.

STONY BROOK UNIVERSITY

Stony Brook, New York 11794

E-mail: enrollintl@stonybrook.edu; Web site: www.stonybrook.edu/admissions
Stav Boutsis, Senior Admissions Advisor/International Admissions Coordinator

Stony Brook University ranks in the top 2% of all universities in the world, according to the London Times Higher Education Supplement. Stony Brook offers 125 majors and minors and combined degree programs - including a fast-track MBA - and a low tuition cost. Programs are offered in the sciences, mathematics, engineering, social sciences, journalism, humanities, fine & performing arts, marine sciences and health professions. Our University Hospital is one of the top 15 teaching hospitals in the U.S. Stony Brook is located only 60 miles east of New York City on Long Island's North Shore.

SUNY COLLEGE OF TECHNOLOGY AT ALFRED

Alfred, New York 14802

E-mail: admissions@alfredstate.edu; Web site: www.alfredstate.edu
Joyce E. Weimer, Director of International Education

Part of the State University of New York, Alfred State College is approaching its 100th year celebration. Outstanding educational opportunities at both the Associate and Baccalaureate degree levels are available. Majors are offered in the areas of information (IT), engineering, agriculture and applied technologies; business; and liberal arts.

SYRACUSE UNIVERSITY

Syracuse, New York 13244

E-mail: orange@syr.edu; Web site: www.syr.edu
Karen Bass, Assistant Director of Admissions

Syracuse University, founded in 1870, has nine undergraduate colleges offering over 200 majors in the liberal arts and specialized professional subjects. The emphasis is on undergraduate teaching, although all the colleges offer work at the graduate level. A center for research, Syracuse attracts scholars from all disciplines.

TEXAS STATE UNIVERSITY-SAN MARCOS

San Marcos, Texas 78666

E-mail: gradcollege@txstate.edu; admissions@txstate.edu;
Web site: www.txstate.edu
Robert Seese, Director, International Office

Princeton Review named Texas State University-San Marcos (Texas State) as one of America's Best Value Colleges for 2007. The campus is located in San Marcos, a small, friendly city with a population of 40,000. It is less than one hour's drive to the two larger cities of Austin and San Antonio. The average daytime temperatures are 34 C in the summer and 17 C in the winter. Popular academic programs include business administration, accounting, computer science, industrial and manufacturing engineering, technology, education, communications, geography and health professions.

UNIVERSITY AT ALBANY, STATE UNIVERSITY OF NEW YORK

Albany, New York 12222

E-mail: jpomeroy@uamail.albany.edu; Web site: www.albany.edu
John Pomeroy, Assistant Director of Admissions

The University at Albany, founded in 1844, is the senior campus of the SUNY system. With 12,000 undergraduates and 5,000 graduate students, the University has an extensive choice of academic fields. The University at Albany prides itself on academic excellence at an affordable price.

UNIVERSITY AT BUFFALO, THE STATE UNIVERSITY OF NEW YORK

Buffalo, New York 14260-1604

E-mail: intiem@buffalo.edu; Web site: www.buffalo.edu
Raymond Lew, Assistant Director, International Enrollment Management

Founded in 1846, University at Buffalo (UB) enrolls 26,000 students, including 3,500 international students from more than 100 countries. UB enjoys the latest in state-of-the-art computer labs, facilities and high-tech classrooms at an affordable tuition. Cutting-edge research and graduate programs enrich the UB undergraduate experience. A leading faculty with many innovative research initiatives makes UB a leading public research university.

UNIVERSITY OF COLORADO AT DENVER AND HEALTH SCIENCES CENTER

Denver, Colorado 80202
E-mail: international@cudenver.edu;
Web site: <http://internationaladmissions.cudenver.edu>
Amy Boom, International Student Advisor

The University of Colorado at Denver and Health Sciences Center (UCDHSC) provides excellent education in one of the world's most exciting cities. At UCDHSC you can choose from over 80 degree programs from the Bachelor's to the Doctoral level. UCDHSC's individual colleges and schools are accredited by AACSB, ABET, NASPAA, NAAB and many other accreditation agencies. The student-to-faculty ratio is 14:1, making class sizes small. The total student population on this campus is around 13,500 students. Our international students have come from over 100 different countries.

UNIVERSITY OF DENVER

Denver, Colorado 80208
E-mail: INTLADM@du.edu; Web site: www.du.edu
Ali Klein, International Enrollment Specialist

The University of Denver (DU) is a mid-sized, private, comprehensive institution located in a residential area of Colorado's capital city. A U.S. News Top 100 university and Wall Street Journal Top 50 business school, DU is the oldest private university in the Rocky Mountain region and offers some of the newest technology and facilities available. Colorado's climate, numerous outdoor activities and Denver's business and entertainment center help attract DU students from 50 states and 83 countries.

UNIVERSITY OF KANSAS

Lawrence, Kansas 66045
E-mail: issapps@ku.edu; gradadmin@ku.edu;
Web site: www.ku.edu/students/international/
Daphne Johnston, Associate Director

The University of Kansas, located in the American Midwest, is a comprehensive research institution with 14 academic schools. KU offers Bachelor's, Master's and Doctoral degrees in more than 175 fields of study, as well as programs for intensive English study. KU is famous for the natural beauty of the campus and for the diversity of cultural and recreational opportunities. Enrolling 28,000 students, including 1,600 international students from over 100 countries, KU has been rated as a best buy by Kiplinger's, Fiske Guide to Colleges, Kaplan's and the Princeton Review.

UNIVERSITY OF MINNESOTA

Minneapolis, Minnesota 55455
E-mail: international@admissions.tc.umn.edu;
Web site: www.admissions.tc.umn.edu
Kay Thomas, Director, International Student & Scholar Services

The University of Minnesota is one of the top 10 public research universities in the U.S. and also one of the most comprehensive, offering unlimited academic opportunities. Many of its programs are ranked among the top in the country and are taught by internationally acclaimed faculty. The University community includes 3,300 international students who come from 130 countries. The University is located in the Twin Cities of Minneapolis and St. Paul — a major national center for business, agribusiness, medicine, technology, media and performing arts and home to 19 Fortune 500 companies.

UNIVERSITY OF MISSOURI - KANSAS CITY

Kansas City, Missouri 64110
E-mail: isao@umkc.edu; Web site: www.umkc.edu/isao
Lynne Yarnevich, Enrollment Services Coordinator

The University of Missouri - Kansas City, a fully accredited Doctoral research university, offers over 50 undergraduate and 80 graduate degrees, professional degree programs and the Applied Language Institute. Its beautiful main campus is located in the center of Kansas City's educational and cultural center that includes one of the country's top engineering and technology libraries, the Linda Hall Library of Science, Engineering and Technology. The diverse economy, including many Fortune 500 corporations, provides opportunities for optional practical training and other educational programs for international students. Kansas City's diverse population offers rich cultural and social opportunities.

UNIVERSITY OF THE PACIFIC

Stockton, California 95211
E-mail: admission@pacific.edu; Web site: www.pacific.edu
David A. Schmidt, Director of Bechtel International Center

The University of the Pacific, founded in 1851, is California's oldest chartered university. It is a three-campus, private, coeducational, comprehensive university offering 80 undergraduate majors in eight schools and 18 graduate programs. These include ABET-accredited engineering, business, education, international studies, music and dentistry. University housing is guaranteed.

UNIVERSITY OF SAN FRANCISCO

San Francisco, California 94117
E-mail: international@usfca.edu; Web site: www.usfca.edu
Richard Johnson, Director, International Relations (Asia)

The University of San Francisco is a private, Jesuit/Catholic university with undergraduate and graduate degree programs in Business, Arts, Sciences, Nursing, Education and Law. USF is ranked in the Top 120 national universities in the U.S. and in the Top 20 for the cultural diversity of our student body. Our San Francisco location provides students unique opportunities in the fields of international business and finance, information technology and biotechnology. Located in the center of the city in a safe, residential neighborhood, USF offers both on- and off-campus housing to students.

UNIVERSITY OF SCRANTON

Scranton, Pennsylvania 18510
E-mail: goonanj1@scranton.edu; Web site: www.scranton.edu
James Goonan, Director, Graduate & International Admissions

The University of Scranton is an urban Jesuit school located in northeastern Pennsylvania in the heart of the city of Scranton. With an enrollment of 5,000 undergraduate and graduate students, the university is large enough to meet students' needs, yet small enough to ensure personal attention. The university has 110 international students from over 25 different countries. Business programs are accredited by AACSB (the Association to Advance Collegiate Schools of Business).

UNIVERSITY OF SOUTHERN CALIFORNIA

Los Angeles, California 90089
E-mail: visitusc@usc.edu; gradadm@usc.edu; Web site: www.usc.edu
Susan Grogan Ikerd, Associate Dean, Admission and Financial Aid and Director of Graduate and International Admission

In 2005, USC celebrated its 125th anniversary. The University occupies a 155-acre, park-like campus in the center of Los Angeles, a city that offers opportunities for research, internships, recreation, culture and community service. In 2005, Princeton Review listed USC among only 81 universities with a social conscience.

WEBSTER UNIVERSITY

St. Louis, Missouri 63119
E-mail: intlstudy@webster.edu; Web site: www.webster.edu
Calvin Smith, Director of International Recruitment

Webster University is located in a residential suburb of St. Louis. The university has demonstrated a global commitment to education by establishing four campuses in Europe (Geneva, Vienna, Leiden and London), a campus in Cha'am, Thailand and an MBA program in Shanghai, China. The university serves over 20,000 students worldwide. A Webster education provides small classes, faculty academic advisers and a caring academic community. We welcome holders of approved three-year undergraduate degrees to apply directly to our Master's degree programs.