William Caren, Associate Vice President

The New York Times has called SUNY Geneseo "one of the country's most highly regarded public colleges." Founded in 1871, Geneseo has all the resources of a major state university system coupled with the advantages of a small, friendly, safe residential campus. Kiplinger's Personal Finance magazine (February 2006) rated Geneseo as the best value in the United States for international students. Kiplinger's staff looked at more than 500 public colleges and universities and concluded Geneseo's high quality education and its low cost made it the number one best value.
